

MINEUM ICO terms

This document is the final terms applicable for MINEUM ICO. The text below is and will be the only valid terms.

When does the ICO takes place?

The ICO takes place on May 7th until May 28th.

Which Cryptocurrency can be exchanged?

To simplify all trades, the only cryptocurrency that we'll accept is Bitcoin.  Why?

How is the distribution?

The total supply of MINEUM at launch will be 9,250 Millions.

4 000 000 MNM for ICO participants

All ICO participants will share a total of 4 millions MNM token in exchange of Bitcoin (BTC).

750 000 MNM will be mineable

As we promote mining, it's normal that we add a mining phase (PoW) to MINEUM. This phase, including 200 000 blocks with a block reward that'll vary between 50 and 1.25 MNM per Block, will generate a total of 750 000 MNM.

100 000 MNM for partners, advisors and 3rd parties

Since the beginning of the idea, we bring some partners, collaborators and other third parties to the project. Furthermore, some of them or others will be invited again to work on some project with us. A total of 100 000 MNM will be reserved for these people.

50 000 MNM for early advisers

A total of 50 000 MNM will be shared to the participants of our bounty campaign. All participants will receive their bounty according to some parameters announce on MINEUM website and Official Presentation.

5 100 000 MNM for CEOs

As majority shareholders, we are selling 49% of our share and keep 51% of it. These 51% will be kept safe in a public address that'll be available in the Official Presentation of MINEUM and on the website with a direct link. These coins won't move from there. It is mainly to allow us to realize minor quick decision if needed. More details about the way we will use our 51% share for dividends :

You should only send one deposit per address. If you want to send more, you need to set a new exchange.

At the end of the ICO, your Private Key will appear on the dashboard. It is your responsibility to keep it safe.

Is there any bonuses I can get?

Yes, a ten percent (10%) bonus will be available for the early birds who participate to the ICO during the first week.

Why are we raising funds?

We are doing an ICO in order to expand our mining activities and its development. The money raised will be managed with high diligence.
